

Dear Sir/Madam,

I have utilised the services of Will Spong at On-Site Recruitment Solutions Ltd since early 2008 and anticipate doing so again after an excellent service.

Will Spong supplied us with experienced general labourers and trades. The service supplied was thorough and efficient and they always have an honest, professional account of themselves.

I would not hesitate to recommend On-Site Recruitment Solutions Ltd, and Will Spong, to other companies looking for agency labour or site professionals.

Yours sincerely,

Richard Dove
